GIORGOS ZONDI | HOTEL & HOSPITALITY PHOTOGRAPHY

bio.

I am a hotel and hospitality photographer based in Athens, Greece, with over a decade of experience specializing in hotel photography.

Born and raised on the island of Thassos, my professional journey began in Thessaloniki in 2005. Since 2013, I have focused exclusively on photographing hotels, resorts, villas, and hospitality brands across Greece and selected destinations in Europe.

I work with brands that value strong visual identity – imagery that goes beyond architecture to communicate atmosphere, design, and the complete guest experience. My work is driven by storytelling and a clear commercial purpose, supporting branding, marketing, and direct bookings.

I believe that hotel photography is no longer purely architectural – it is a strategic visual tool that conveys emotion, experience, and lifestyle.
